We are delighted to announce that the Grace Miller Hyojeong Award for this year has been awarded to Simon Jaupi, in recognition of his unwavering heart of service, sincerity, and dedication to the Scottish Community.

The Grace Miller Hyojeong Award is given each year to a young person who embodies the spirit of Hyojeong — a heart of filial love, joy, and selfless devotion. This award honours those who not only give back to their community but uplift and inspire others through the way they live.

Simon is a shining example of these values. Over the past year, he has been a consistent and humble presence at nearly every major event in our community, offering his time, energy, and creativity in any way that was needed — often behind the scenes. Whether it's supporting AV, running logistics, helping with youth workshops, or simply being a quiet, reliable hand wherever support was needed.

His work has touched every generation, and many of us can share a moment when Simon stepped in with a smile, solved a problem, or quietly made things easier for others. His attitude of care and consistency reminds us all of what it truly means to live a life of service — not for recognition, but for love.

We are proud to celebrate Simon as this year's recipient. Thank you, Simon, for your example, your presence, and the light you bring to our community!
