FFWPU UK: The Little Angels Are Coming to the UK This July

Bogdan Pammer June 29, 2025

We're delighted to share that the Little Angels, South Korea's internationally renowned children's folk ballet ensemble, will be visiting the UK next weekend — with three opportunities for you to experience their incredible talent live.

The Little Angels have long been recognised as cultural ambassadors of peace, using traditional Korean dance and music to build bridges of understanding across the world. Their performances carry a deep spirit of beauty, grace, and hope — making this visit a truly special moment for our community.

1. International Highlight Performance – Rose Theatre, Kingston

Date: Saturday, 5 July 2025

Time: 7:30 PM

Location: Rose Theatre, Kingston

Tickets: Approximately £10 – Book here

This special evening concert will feature a vibrant mix of classical, musical theatre, and jazz pop, with performances from the Seocho Philharmonia, ARKO Ensemble, and other world-class Korean artists. The Little Angels will take the stage as part of this international collaboration led by acclaimed conductor and artistic director Jong Hoon Bae.

2. River South Sunday Service – Peace Embassy, Lancaster Gate

Date: Sunday, 6 July 2025 Time: Morning service

Location: Peace Embassy, 43 Lancaster Gate, London

The Little Angels will also be performing a short piece during the Sunday morning service at the Peace Embassy. This will be a more intimate and reflective setting, offering a beautiful addition to our regular worship.

3. Voices and Music for Peace - Stories of Strength

Date: Sunday, 6 July 2025 Time: 4:00 PM – 7:00 PM

Location: Universal Peace Federation – UK, 43 Lancaster Gate, London W2 3NA

Register here: bit,ly/3HY6vC2

This afternoon event brings together music, stories, and reflections to celebrate peace and unity.

Programme highlights include:

Choral performance by the Little Angels

Keynote by David Eaton: Harmony Beyond Borders – The Role of Music in Peacebuilding "It's Time" – a musical storytelling performance by Eduard Glumov, Minah Bolimakoa and Dawattie Basdeo

"Mother" – song and reflection by Romeu (online contribution)

Peace & Media insights from journalist Ian Pelham Turner

The event will close with light refreshments, networking, and opportunities for further conversation.

We warmly invite all members, families, and friends to join one (or more) of these events and take part in a weekend of music, culture, and community. This is a rare opportunity to welcome the Little Angels to the UK and experience the powerful role of the arts in building peace.

About the show

Our International Highlight Performance. A spectacular night of live music mixing classical, musical, and jazz pop music with special guest world-class artists from Korea. This is a collaboration between Seocho Philharmonia, ARKO Ensemble & World-Renowned Artists led by the internationally celebrated artistic director and conductor Jong Hoon Bae.

About the artists

As a conductor, Korean American Jong Hoon Bae brings a wealth of musical experience to the podium. Maestro Bae has established himself as one of the most sought-after conductors of today, in Korea and abroad. He has served as the Founding Artistic Director and Conductor of Seocho Philoharmonia, the resident orchestra of the Seocho Cultural Foundation since 2016. Maestro Bae has created a memorable presence as a conductor in opera productions and orchestral concerts at world-famous concert halls such as Royce Hall and Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles, and Berlin Philharmonic Hall in Berlin, Musik Verein Golden Hall in Vienna as well as Carnegie Hall in New York.

In 2010, Bae founded and served as music director and conductor of the Korean National Military Symphony, which belongs to the Ministry of National Defense of Korea. He recently started an unprecedented long-term project to record and perform live broadcasts of all 107 Haydn symphonies. The project is schedule to be completed by 2026 as first conductor in history.
