Dear brothers and sisters,

Greetings from Lancaster Gate, where tonight IAYSP will host a Christmas dinner, the UPF team is working on their next event, brothers and sisters join the Friday vigil prayer, the ballroom ceiling is under repair after a leak, members come in for meetings, sharing consultations, and our missionaries just held a Korean culture evening.

I am sure your head also sometimes feels like a buzzing building. Life tends to fill up with the things at the forefront of our minds.

We need God's Peace to value what matters.

True Parents help us connect to that peace and presence.
