

On a walk with God

This is a spiritual experience about Cheon Il Guk that I received after a victorious fight against the public persecution of True Parents and UPF shortly after Foundation Day. It was given to me while I was preparing a Sunday service for my community. However take it as my sharing, not as my teaching.

“Guard your heart more than any treasure, for it is the source of all life”
Proverbs 4:23

Our spiritual path till Foundation Day 2013 brought us in front of the gate of a new spiritual dimension. Cheon Il Guk has arisen in front of us.

After Foundation Day I tried to find what Cheon Il Guk was about, but I could not see it, or rather, at any time when I tried to focus my mind on this topic, I saw in front of me a big transparent doorway. Behind it there was an immense empty, white, illuminated, indefinable space. This caused me such uneasiness that I felt blocked, and for many weeks I stood at the gate of Cheon Il Guk without stepping inside.

I seemed to look at a stormy desert, an endless nothing without attraction. I stayed for a little while, had a look and left again. There was nothing, not even a small point of reference and I asked myself where in all of this was God. I felt insecure, disorientated, and couldn't find any reason for happiness. I was not able to pray during that time period, except to ask God for direction and to answer a few requests for help.

One day at the end of spring, in a situation of extreme spiritual hardship, I made an agreement with God: I had to discover what Cheon Il Guk was really about. I felt more free than usual in front of that entrance. I picked up my courage to go through the doorway and to enter into that white luminous space beyond the gate, and instantly a marvel was revealed in front of me. The first thing I discovered was that it was possible to communicate with God. Shyly I started to pose a simple question that was answered with a warm and comprehensive voice. So began my walk with God:

I asked: “Why is it empty here?”

“This is your Cheon Il Guk; therefore you have to fill it.”

“What do I put into it?”

“Only beauties of heart, here nothing else can exist, only beauties of heart. This is the law of Cheon Il Guk.”

“But there’s nobody here!”

“I know, because this is your personal space. Every person has to furnish his or her own personal space.”

“And where is the Cheon Il Guk of others?”

“In front of you, but you cannot enter without being invited. You have to make your own beauties of heart visible; otherwise in the area of Cheon Il Guk you remain transparent to others.”

“I always thought that inside Cheon Il Guk there would have been a place for a couple or a family. Why is this place, which should be mine, empty?”

“Everyone has their own place at the beginning, then you must furnish and decorate it. Inside this place are only the two of us, therefore you are protected. If you want, you can create an opening of connection with your family members and your loved ones, but you can’t enter into the Cheon Il Guk of others without their permission. First you have to show your beauties of heart, otherwise to others you will be transparent and even blind in looking at the furnishings of their Cheon Il Guk. You would see only white.”

“Even Pippo?”

“Yes, this is the rule of the perfection stage.”

“How can I meet my husband, if it is so difficult? I imagined that Cheon Il Guk would be a kind of garden in which I would walk around hand in hand with him.”

“You have time. You decorate your Cheon Il Guk and he will do the same with his. You’ll connect step by step during your perfecting time. You will tear down the separation together.”

“But now there is nothing. There is only emptiness in mine, and I don’t even see where his Cheon Il Guk is!”

“I know, this is the beginning for him and for you and for all of those who have the permission to enter into Cheon Il Guk. Meanwhile you have the passport for entering, but if you don’t want to enter, you don’t need to do it by force. You can also enter and leave, back and forth, as you like. Outside Cheon Il Guk you can meet whoever you want. You can also descend to hell, rise again and stop in front of the gate of your Cheon Il Guk. After all it is like you have lived until now. On Foundation Day I have given you the passport to enter here to me, under my direct dominion, but till now you did not use it yet. Therefore it is still empty.”

“And from where is it possible to fill it?”

“Start just behind the gate, so you can leave when your soul is satisfied. The beauties of heart can exist outside like inside, but there they are not protected like here. The space here is really exclusive and valuable because it is our place of instant understanding. Return for a visit to me every day, and I will hand out to you the tools for furnishing your Cheon Il Guk, depending on your state of mind, even if you stay only for 10 minutes.”

I went forth to explore my Cheon Il Guk. After a while I stopped and continued to converse:

“I always thought that in the Heavenly Kingdom there would be no barriers, and now I see myself enclosed in some kind of endless bubble.”

“Don’t worry, you are all beginners. I created this as protection, not as limitation. Unfortunately I still need to protect you from each other; any intrusion into the absolute harmony is not allowed. When you consolidate your qualities of heart, that means by decorating your space, you yourselves will be the ones who melt the borders. In fact the border walls melt thanks to the warmth of heart in tune with another heart. This is the place where you will find internal harmony to regenerate your heart, a protected place from spiritual interference by the heart of someone else who is working at the perfection of his or her own Cheon Il Guk. Look at the spaces as protected and private entities. Many did not even discover their place, and roam around with the passport in their pocket.”

“Therefore I can enter and leave whenever I want?”

“Yes, you have searched and found your Cheon Il Guk. It is yours, indeed and forever. No one will take it from you, but if you don’t furnish it, it remains empty. The rules of Cheon Il Guk are cosmic. They apply to both; the people who live in their earthly life and for people who reside in their eternal abode in the spiritual world. You can meet because there is a place reserved for each person in Cheon Il Guk. There are billions of spaces ready for the spirit of every person.”

“Can I reach the end of Cheon Il Guk?”

“What is the end? There is no end, so Cheon Il Guk can grow to infinity.”

“Would you like that I stay here?”

“You couldn’t make it at this moment, nor is it the purpose of your life. The time will come, when the world will be completely restored, and the Heavenly Kingdom will be your home. During the course of restoration the external space is needed, in fact it is where you are living now, so that your Cheon Il Guk does not get contaminated. The beauties of heart are the achievements that you make outside and bring inside, not the other way round. They are the juice of life and must flow like the pure water from the source. Life itself creates the beauties of heart. It is not possible to take them for your own use or to steal them. In that case, if you reach out your hand to take one, it would not be tangible. You can only receive them as a gift, as a reflection of your empathetic radiance that comes back to you after shining from your heart to others. This is the rule. Create a basis of love towards everyone in your heart and you will be sprinkled by beauties of heart. Serve, help, care, respect, donate, comfort, forgive, be generous and nurture goodness in others, and you will bring here many stimulants for decoration. Sow and multiply goodness and you will see the beauties of heart growing in your soul and in those of others. You will be welcomed in the Cheon Il Guk of many people, and you can be invited by the highest bearers of values of heart, but not with empty hands, otherwise you would see only white and emptiness. The beauties of heart are free, transparent and weightless for those who do not have the basis to perceive them.”

I made some steps forward and felt more confident with the environment, therefore I continued:

“What is the best virtue for the decoration of Cheon Il Guk?”

“The most radiant one is forgiveness, because it relieves your heart from the past and makes it large for the future. You have to train in all the virtues, but forgiveness establishes the essential basis for the beginning of your life in Cheon Il Guk in the ideal future. In the ideal world there will be no more need to forgive. Train yourself in all the virtues of heart. Take the example from the children who play on the playground: they repeat again and again the same movements. They don’t know that they do it in order to train the equilibrium of their bodies. You have to produce goodness and repeat the action again and again, and in that way you will train your internal equilibrium and the agility of movement in your Cheon Il Guk. You will learn all the abilities and virtues to create beauties of heart and bring them into your Cheon Il Guk. Decorate it with colors, sounds, perfumes and all the most beautiful sensations of the Universe.”

“I would also like to pass through the limitations between myself and Pippo.”

“Good, the walls of separation melt with the warmth of heart. If you touch them with your hands it seems impossible to penetrate. I’ll give you some advice: concentrate your heart on a focused point and you will see that it melts like ice above a flame.”

“Then, can I pass through the opening and enter into the Cheon Il Guk of Pippo?”

“Yes, but only if he also creates an opening at the same point of his limitation. It is a work that requires synchronization of heart and positive energy, otherwise it is impossible to pass through. In Cheon Il Guk it is like that. If this condition is not fulfilled, you have to meet each other outside, as you do normally, within your stages of growth. Here in Cheon Il Guk only perfection exists.” I remained a little perplexed about that, but He continued immediately:

“Remember that the borders serve only as protection for your beauties of heart, but the more you furnish, the more the warmth of heart and light will melt the barriers. My dream is a Cheon Il Guk without limitations and boundaries, as one endless eternal heavenly land. This was the reason I have created you, it is your destiny.”

“And True Parents, where can I find them?”

“Your interest towards True Parents is based on curiosity and not on desire. Here it is not enough. Curiosity leaves space for doubt and critique. This is o.k. in the stages of growth, in order to compare and test the free will of judgment. Here we are completely out of those kinds of parameters. Here is the perfection stage, under my direct dominion and no negativity exists. There are no negative words, no such kind of vocabulary exists. The minimum condition you can meet is the silence of absolute calm. From there we proceed towards endless positivity.”

“35 years of curiosity are not enough?”

“No, not even one thousand. The key word is: passionate desire.”

“Could I also know what was the purpose of the 12 years of preparation before the establishment of Cheon Il Guk ?”

“I needed 12 years to create for you to access Cheon Il Guk, and on Foundation Day I distributed many passports. Most of you put it into your pocket and so far didn’t use it; some of you lost it. Many say that nothing happened, in fact, nothing will happen, because Cheon Il Guk is your creation, all yours. I will give you the tools, but only if your heart asks. You can stand at the gate and look in, but if you don’t enter and decorate, it will remain empty and with all intact borders. Now we are at the beginning.”

I felt overwhelmed by immense joy and asked one last thing:

“And myself, how do I start? What would you give me today to begin?”

“Discover your virtues of character and bring them in. Preserve them with the maximum care; don’t lose any, for the content of Cheon Il Guk is immensely precious. Good, for today I will give you a palette of colors and a set of brushes. But remember, I recommend, only beauties of heart!”
