November 25, 2015

By FFWPU Thailand: Mr. & Mrs. Porapas Rattanachakorn joined hand with many blessed families in Bangkok to pioneer Heavenly Tribal Messiah movement at Nongmamong district government auditorium, Chainat Province at 3 and half hours northern part of Bangkok on November 25, 2015. With the great support of Deputy Chief District and community leaders of Nongmamong, there were 225 participants joined.

The first session is Divine Principle and Significance of Blessing lecture including explanation of 40 days separation and 3 days ceremony by Mr. Porapas Rattanachakorn, Tribal Messiah. Mr. Raweetheewat Srisuttisard, W-CARP Thailand president served as MC. Mr. Wanchai Sonchaisakul, Vice President of FFWPU Thailand gave welcoming remark. Then, Mr. Apichart Simuang, Nongmamong Chief of District Officer gave opening remark. It followed by Holy Wine ceremony and Invocation prayer by Buddhist monk, Muslim Imam and Christian minister.

Rev. Kamol Thananopavarn and Mrs. Huang Shu-Chiung, President of FFWPU Thailand served as officiator. The holiest time was benediction prayer by True Parents at Cheongshim Peace World Center in March 2012. At the end, FFWPU Thailand presented the certificate of appreciation to Nongmamong Chief of district officer and all sub-district directors, then follow by Indemnity stick ceremony.

All blessing participants were so inspired and happy, they felt the sense of renew, purification and sanctification of their marriage. They want to invite FFWPU to come back and hold Blessing and Divine Principle at Nongmamong district again in near future.
