"A moment that marked a new beginning - not just for us, but for our future generations."

Many people have asked me about the Hyojeong Cosmic Blessing, and I want to take a moment to explain it according to the Divine Principle

The Hyojeong Cosmic Blessing is more than just a wedding ceremony. It's a deep spiritual experience rooted in the teachings of Rev. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, also known as the True Parents. This Blessing is all about building a new kind of family - one that's centered on God, true love, and peace.

Let's break it down:

"Hyojeong" is a Korean word that means a heart of sincere filial love - the kind of love that's loyal, humble, and always thinking about how to serve others, especially parents and elders. In this case, it's about having that pure heart toward God and humanity.

The "Cosmic" part reflects the fact that this blessing isn't just for a specific religion, culture, or group. It's for everyone. It's a universal invitation to start anew - to receive forgiveness, healing, and a fresh spiritual beginning.

When someone receives the Blessing, they believe their family lineage is being restored. That means cutting off from negative spiritual baggage and starting a new bloodline that's connected directly to God. It's powerful. It's not just about the couple - it's about generations to come.

This Blessing promotes world peace, beginning from the family. When we create families based on true love, respect, and living for the sake of others, that spirit can spread through society and beyond.

So for me, the Hyojeong Cosmic Blessing is a chance to align myself and my future with God's original dream for humanity: a world of true love, peace, and unity - starting from the family.
