Speaker Series:
Education for our 430 Blessed Tribe

Ron Pappalardo

"How our marriage survived tragedy and became stronger"

Tuesday, December 11

5:30-7pm

The Washington Times, 3rd floor

3600 New York Ave, NE, Washington, DC 20002

Since Father Moon went to the spiritual world, many people have been eager to receive communication from him, and many have. In this program, Ron Pappalardo will share experiences he has had with Father Moon, and the experiences of two others as well. The messages are just amazing -- comforting, healing, inspiring, and uplifting. You won't want to miss these extraordinary messages!

The Washington Times talk on Dec 11 is part of the series I am organizing on "Spiritually Strengthening Marriages and Families". This is a monthly series designed to provide non-threatening, broad based education for those whom we meet and/or bless as part of the 430 couple blessing campaigns. I am trying to go beyond just giving out holy wine and never seeing the person/couple again as in previous campaigns. This offers a monthly program that we can invite our contacts to, allowing for a monthly email touch, and for those contacts who choose, a chance for them to learn more.

Spiritual parents who invite their contacts to the Washington Times series should ask their contacts to RSVP to the spiritual parent who invites them. That's why I put an editable field at the bottom of the speakers list invitation sheet. So each person can put their own email there for the RSVP. Then, when a contact confirms, the spiritual parent will know that their guest is planning to attend and can make arrangements to join them at the talk. It is also important for the spiritual parent to let me know that their guest is coming so I can compile a complete guest list for each event.
