

Joint New Year's Midnight Service, Washington Times, New Hope - DC Church

Jim Boothby
December 31, 2018

Joint Midnight Service

New Hope - DC Church

12 Midnight, Tonight, New Year's Eve
The Washington Times

3rd Floor

New Year's Eve Monday, December 31st
(come to the side door and ring bell, or call Achille, 201 328 6979)

Please join us Late tonight at the Washington Times for a short NewYears Eve
Service to welcome the New Year.

New Hope, together with the Washington Times church will welcome the New Year as per Mother's Encouragement.

(Our church was unavailable because our renter tenants are using it tonight)

12 midnight, arrive 11:15-11:45 , prepare for
New Year

Bow

Family pledge, everyone

Pastor Achille and Pastor Jim offer short representative prayers

Everyone Together, 21 minutes of strong unison prayer to powerfully begin the New Year.

Song

End

Please plan to arrive Between 11:15 and 11:45 p.m. Please use the side door. You can use the time as we await the midnight countdown to reflect , repent about the year ending and to strongly determines the year beginning

Apologies for the late notice .. This is such a critical year . Its the last year that takes into the Providential moment of 2020. We just felt we had to have a service. With our church occupied at midnight by our tenant renters, we decided to team up with the DC church.

See you there hopefully...

Hopefully, you have your own New Year's goals and objectives or resolutions written in hand.

Afterwards we can fellowship a bit.

Any question call Pastor Jim 410 562 8317

(You may also watch the 9:30am live feed form Korea on your computer. We will forward one more time, a separate HQ letter with that info and link.Thank you.)