Harrowing Rights Abuses Against Minority Faith

In this enclosed space, Miyamura and former church members (including acquaintances) frequently visited, aggressively criticizing the doctrines, the church, and its founder.

Added to this was “abnormal behavior and actions from the family”. While abducting and confining one’s child is inherently abnormal, when the persuasion to leave the church did not proceed as planned, “they would lose control emotionally and suddenly hit or kick me.” Agreements that had been painstakingly reached were often broken overnight.
