Appeal Rejected: "Abdication of Judiciary's Role"

The organization had sought damages from Nippon Television and journalist Yoshifu Arita (有田芳生) for alleged defamation. Presiding Judge Akifumi Ota (太田晃詳) ruled that while Arita's statements did diminish the social reputation of the organization, they were "made with the aim of contributing to the public interest" and "did not exceed the boundaries of opinion or commentary." As such, the court dismissed the appeal filed by the organization.
