This is What They're Doing to the Mother of Peace

In a cell no larger than a Mini Cooper, the Mother of Peace prays for humanity. No bed. No sunlight. She crawls in pain, praying for humanity. This is not justice -- it's persecution. Watch the truth the world needs to see.

ACLC Women in Ministry Conference

The ACLC Women in Ministry National Conference, held September 18–20, 2025, at the Hilton Cincinnati Airport, commemorated the organization's 21st anniversary with the theme "Moving Forward to Higher Ground." Marking the first national conference since 2010, the event honored historical figures like Harriet Tubman and promoted unity amidst societal division. With 107 participants—including top Christian leaders, ministers, and representatives from FFWPU, WFWP, WCLC, and UPF—the conference featured keynote speeches from faith leaders such as Pastor Ylawnda Peebles, Dr. Maxine Johnson, and First Lady Marion Meares. Key highlights included the Peace Road Rally, a tour of the National Underground Railroad Museum, and the Bridge of Peace Sisterhood Ceremony. The program also included panel discussions, testimonies, and devotionals, all centered around spiritual growth, forgiveness, leadership, and collaboration. The event received significant local media coverage and state recognition, and was supported by various religious and outreach organizations, successfully reaffirming its mission to uplift communities and foster interfaith unity.
