The Contemporary Meaning of the Second Blessing “Be Fruitful”

Speech by Rev. Doo. Seung Yeon

Beloved brothers and sisters, peace be with you!

Over the past three weeks, we have deeply shared about the basic attitude and practices we must cultivate to achieve the First Blessing given by our Creator, Heavenly Parent—the individual perfection of character. It was a precious time for us to re-examine our stance for personal growth as people of faith. Before we begin this week’s message, I wish to share some inspiring news from the global providence field.

Just recently, from the 10th to the 12th of this month, I attended the Inter-Parliamentary Speakers’ Conference held in Islamabad, the capital of Pakistan. The government of Pakistan, which hosted the ISC, formally invited True Mother as a State Guest to this significant event. Although she was regrettably unable to attend personally, her stature and lifelong dedication to achieving world peace illuminated the entire conference, where Speakers of Parliament from many nations gathered to discuss global peace.
