True Mother has been detained for over 100 days

As of yesterday, True Mother has been detained for 100 days. South Korea holds the world record for violating basic human rights and international law by imprisoning the world's oldest female political prisoner, Dr. Hak Ja Han. Imprisoned since September 23, 2025, she is set to start the New Year in inhumane conditions. Yet, she still prays for the greater good of this nation and the world. Where have democracy and decency gone in South Korea?

EARTH NEWS FROM THE HEART

From Global Vision to Everyday Care

In "Wanjira Mathai Sees Green in Africa's Future," we're reminded that healing the land is inseparable from healing communities. Her work shows how long-term care for the Earth can create resilience, dignity, and hope across generations.

That same spirit appears closer to home in "Serving Beautiful Meals in the Neighborhood." Ken Baker's story reveals how small, thoughtful acts—sharing food, caring for neighbors—are also expressions of environmental stewardship and love.

Together, these stories remind us that caring for the Earth begins where we are—and grows through how we care for one another. If these stories matter to you, your support helps them reach more hearts:
