Jardim: A Holy Ground of Longing and Promise

Starting this week, I would like to share the grace of this Heavenly Central and South America tour with you over a special three-week series.

This 21-day journey, from March 6 to 25, took us to seven locations in five different nations. We visited key countries in the South American providence, into which True Parents have been pouring their heart, soul, and devotions over so many years. Our itinerary included Bolivia, which is currently seeing remarkable growth through outreach to young people, as well as Jardim and Leda—precious places that have received True Parents' special love and dedication.

For this first week, I want to focus on our time in Jardim, the very first stop of our continental visit.

A beautiful and resolute mother.
Even amidst excruciating pain, she boarded the car with a serene expression, so as not to worry us.

How agonizing that must have been !!

But I know.

That it is the mother's love not to show it.

We too must become something like our mother.

The mother I dreamed of even in my dreams. I wanted to meet you, even just once.
Painful to look at, yet divine.

It's a miraculous figure that makes it hard to believe you were truly in prison for 188 days.

I imagine your actual body must be battered and worn, but I Show more

Restrained to a state close to the limit 🙏 Mom, you endured it so well! 💜
At the hospital, may you receive the best treatment and peaceful times 🙏
Wishing for complete healing ❤️.

Nobel Peace Prize Nomination Submitted for Dr. Hak Ja Han

Dr. Jan Figel @janfigel, former EU Special Envoy for Freedom of Religion or Belief, has formally nominated Dr. Hak Ja Han of the Family Federation (FFWPU) for the 2026 Nobel Peace Prize.

In his nomination letter, Figel cited the following achievements:

1. Interfaith cooperation: Appointed thousands of Peace Ambassadors worldwide to bridge religious divides
2. Korean Peninsula peace: Organized Rally of Hope summits promoting peaceful reunification
3. Humanitarian recognition: Established the Sunhak Peace Prize, honoring global peace advocates
4. UN engagement: UPF and WFPW hold comprehensive consultative status with the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)
5. 38th Parallel Peace Initiative: A proposal to build an international peace park in the DMZ, aligned with Nobel's vision of abolishing armed conflict
6. Cultural diplomacy: Deployed the Little Angels performing arts troupe to carry peace messages worldwide

On Dr. Han's ongoing detention, Figel stated that many international observers regard it as politically motivated and intended to obstruct her global peace work.

He noted that U.S. Vice President J.D. Vance @JDVance raised her case directly with the South Korean Prime Minister during official talks, a sign that her detention has become a matter of urgent international concern.

Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon has dedicated her entire life with her husband Dr. Sun Myung Moon for peace and serving God and humankind beyond boundaries of race, culture and religion. This nomination is most deserved. Glory be to God 🙏

Finally. Someone who get who she is! And her husband, Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon, is eminently worthy of receiving the Prize posthumously!
