Rev. Dunkley's Speech "America's Greatest Export Should Be Hope"

In my full address at the Washington, DC commemoration of the Washington Monument rally's 50th anniversary, I reflect on God's dream of one human family and America's responsibility to serve the world.

I speak about freedom of conscience, listening across religious differences, caring for our families and becoming citizens of hope in our everyday lives.

I also share a reflection on Dr. Hak Ja Han, known to her followers as the Mother of Peace, and her concern for families and the wider world. What would it mean for you to be a citizen of hope where you live?

VIRTUAL EVENT

Let Your Ego Go

When Ego steps aside,
Love steps in.

Join us for a special virtual sharing with Dr. Tyler Hendricks as he shares his experiences on what happens when we let our ego go.

Come hear how letting go of one's ego in our church's restorative journey can make relationships smoother, our families stronger, and everyday life more peaceful.

You can gain practical insights and real stories from within our faith community that show how simple acts of love and humility can change everything.

Dr. Tyler Hendricks, former president of our church in the USA and a former leader in many other vital positions in our movement, will join us to speak on the theme “Let Your Ego Go.” Drawing from decades of leadership, pastoral care, and hands-on experience within our worldwide community, he brings a perspective that is both deeply seasoned and lovingly honest. His message will speak to the very heart of our work at Peace and Reconciliation – Together, offering guidance that can help us grow, heal, and move forward with greater clarity and unity. I’m eager, and I hope you are too, to discover what Heaven wishes to show us through him.

Join us this Sunday, 27th September at 7:30 pm CET, online.
