The detention suspension period for Han Hak-ja (83), president of the Family Federation, has been extended again, now until October 20.

According to legal circles, the Seoul High Court approved the request from Han's side to extend the detention suspension on the 29th. As a result, the suspension period, which had been until 6 p.m. on September 30, has been extended until 3 p.m. on October 20.

Meanwhile, the court will hold the first appellate hearing for President Han at 2 p.m. on October 13. On that day, a hearing on the bail application will also be conducted.

President Han has been detained since September 23, 2025. Today marks the 371st day. During her detention in the detention center, her health has deteriorated, and she is currently in a condition requiring hospital treatment.

I hear that the 83-year-old Korean president, who has chronic illnesses, spends his days without resenting anyone, filled with feelings of gratitude.
I can't help but wonder why a Korea that values filial piety is like this.
My heart aches.

This is SO incredibly unjust. She is innocent. There is no evidence of crime on her part. There is no sentencing, no conviction, because she is innocent. She has done nothing wrong. And yet she is held for OVER ONE YEAR!

Live outside the Special Prosecutor's Office in Seoul. True Mother stands firm. She is innocent. Even the witness retracted his claims. After endless raids, unprecedented investigations, and millions spent — they've found nothing. Why? Because there is nothing.

A winning team celebrates together on the Spiceland National Youth Campus grounds.

Located in Spiceland, Indiana, the private retreat campus was created for youth camps, educational programs, leadership experiences and other meaningful gatherings. Facilities include dorm accommodations, a main lodge with meeting and breakout spaces, a commercial kitchen and an outdoor pavilion accommodating up to 200 people.

The opening marks an exciting new chapter: a dedicated national home where young people from across America can gather, build friendships, develop leadership and create experiences that can shape a lifetime.
