How to Organize Your Program

You're doing great so far! The last piece of the puzzle is how exactly to structure your program. We want you to do more than just watch a screen for a few hours. This watch party should be full of local talent, interaction and engagement. Let the Holy Spirit work in your own community!

Make sure you have a good MC who can be flexible and joyful throughout the program.

- 2:00 PM EST- 3:00 PM EST: Introductory Program

- Introduce yourselves: If you're a small enough group, allow everyone to introduce themselves. If you're a larger group you may want to recognize some of the groups that are present and any special VIPs
- Share the Peace Starts with Me Vision: Open people's hearts to what they're about to experience.
 - Give some background information about Peace Starts with Me previous activities.
 - Have a short message about the message of Peace Starts with Me and include small group discussions on the topic.
 - Feature testimonies from those who have been to the rallies live
- Feature Local Performances: Invite local choirs, dance groups and performers to perform as part of the watch party.

- 3:00 PM EST- 4:30 PM EST: Blessing & Mother Moon's Address

Be ready to join the live broadcast no later than 3 PM EST. You should have someone watching the broadcast in the back of the room in case the program is changed last minute. As we all know, things happen last minute and we have to be ready to go with the flow. Make sure you keep your schedule open and your team is ready to be flexible.

- Blessing Ceremony: The ceremony itself will be lead from the live broadcast but you should make sure your team is ready with the following items:
 - Blessing Scarves
 - Holy Wine
 - Holy Water

- Blessing Vows
 - Mother Moon's Address: Mother Moon will be speaking in Korean but the translation will be streamed live through the transmission.
- 4:30 PM EST- 5:00 PM EST: Celebration

The live broadcast will feature closing performances by Yolanda Adams & Hezekiah Walker. You are welcome to enjoy the performances through the broadcast, or to feature your own local performances of celebration.
- Conclusion

Make sure to thank everyone for their participation as well as share about future plans and ways to stay connected.

Make sure to plan ahead of time!

Programs like this take investment and preparation, so we suggest meeting with your team NOW and begin planning. The more time you spend preparing the smoother things will go in the actual program. You'll inevitably encounter hiccups along the way and it may be a bumpy ride, but try to remind yourself in those moments who we are doing this for. God and True Parents are so grateful for your investment and hardwork and are getting ready to shower you and your community with blessings. We are so grateful for what you are doing in your local community.
