On December 16, 2018, blessing events were held across Canada. In Toronto, Srilankan community organized Blessing Ceremony. Over 500 guest attended for Blessing education and Blessing ceremony under the support of board of directors of Srilankan community. Including Member of Parliament and Member of Provincial Parliament, and many other VIPs attended.

On the same day, Blessings and Holiday Family Festivals were held in Montreal with over 300 participants that included Ambassadors for Peace, Community and Civic leaders as well as family friends and family. In Vancouver, FFWPU organized Blessing ceremony with Nepal and Bangladesh community leaders as well. Participants expressed their commitment to the ideal of a God-centered family as the cornerstone for creating a better world.

One participant testified: "The FFWPU organized a large celebration for the Holidays. I give my gratitude to my friend Pierre who invited me to participate. Peace is built in families founded on love. I was very happy and impressed by the magnitude of this great global movement for the peace education of families. Thank you very much to life."
