HyoJeong Workshop

Greetings BFC Families!

The time is drawing in even closer as we are only one more week away from the Madison Square Garden with True Mother on July 15th. If you have not yet bought your ticket there is still time to order it online or purchase them at the door.

Tickets are available after Sunday Service or can be purchased from Mrs. Tae Shimizu in Irvington (cell: 914-318-6289; email: taeshimizu11@gmail.com) to immediately pick up or reserve your tickets in exchange for online voucher, cash, or check.

Furthermore, for this Sunday Service we will be having a very special guest speaker, Dr. Ki Hoon Kim. Finally, our sister, Laura Nabetani will be going through a tracheotomy today at the Phelps Hospital and we ask that you all keep her in your prayers for a successful treatment.

However, for anyone who is interested or know anyone looking for a place to stay, the New Yorker is available for the weekend of July 14-16. We encourage those who are interested to make their reservation as soon as possible.

Hello Everyone!

We are very excited to invite you to the HyoJeong Workshop for Youth and Young Adults from July 14-16 surrounding True Mother's rally at Madison Square Garden.

Hyojeong (heart of filial piety) is a gathering of youth and young adults from across the nation to strengthen our identity as young Unificationists and connect with our True Mother. Join us in the heart of NYC for a weekend experience of fellowship, enrichment, and inspiration. We hope to see you there!

Young Adults aged 18-39 are eligible to attend this weekend workshop for $70 which includes food, programming, and floor seats to the Madison Square Garden rally. However, young adults are responsible for finding their own lodging for the night. Once you have registered we will connect you with a network to help find young adults to share lodging with.

Youth who are incoming high school freshman are welcome to attend the weekend workshop. If they are attending as part of a camp, the only cost they are responsible for is a $20 ticket for the rally. The rest of the cost is covered through their camp fee. If they are attending from a local community there is a $120 fee which includes food, lodging, programming, and floor seats to the Madison Square Garden rally.
