A Major Spiritual Milestone in Kinshasa

From April 25 to 26, 2026, the Democratic Republic of the Congo hosted a national Hyo Jeong Cheon Bo workshop of significant spiritual importance. Held simultaneously at the National Center in Kinshasa and online, the event drew 2,748 participants from across the nation. This massive turnout highlights the growing commitment of members toward ancestral liberation and their deepening relationship with the Heavenly Parent.

Core Objectives: Faith and Transformation

The workshop aimed to deepen the understanding of Cheon Bo principles, focusing on:

Ancestor Liberation and Blessing: Healing family lineages up to 430 generations.

Spiritual Purification: Clearing negative influences and restoring inner clarity.

Family Values: Strengthening blessed families through the teachings of the True Parents.

Day 1: Education and Preparation

The workshop opened on Saturday, April 25, with intensive educational sessions. Highlights included:

ChamBuMoRon Studies: A deep dive into the foundations of spiritual tradition.

Couple Relationships: Insights into harmony, mutual respect, and shared responsibility within the family unit.

Day 2: Spiritual Liberation and Social Action

Sunday marked the program's peak, featuring high-intensity spiritual activities led by the Continental Director.

Ancestor Liberation (Gens 1 - 430): Conducted through Chanyang Yeoksa, combining prayer, song, and movement in a powerful atmosphere of restoration.

Wish Paper Ceremony: A symbolic moment for participants to offer personal vows and prayers to Heaven.

The Heavenly Green Movement: In a unique blend of faith and environmentalism, attendees participated in a local cleanup, embodying a "living spirituality" that serves the common good.

The Climax: The Ancestor Blessing

The workshop concluded with the Ancestor Blessing Ceremony, a moment of profound grace. This final stage represented the culmination of liberation and purification, leaving participants with a sense of renewed spiritual identity and family restoration.

Conclusion

The 2026 Hyo Jeong Cheon Bo workshop was a resounding success. By integrating deep teaching with practical action - such as ecological engagement - the FFPMU DRC has strengthened its spiritual foundation, equipping its members to better embody Hyo Jeong values in their daily lives.
