True Father: Mother is the Owner of my Heart

Father says that Mother "has the key for his love" and explains, "The love I value above my life is not my own; it belongs to my partner (Mother)." (CSG: True Love). "The older I become, the more precious my wife is to me." (Autobiography)

"That's why a man's wife is the owner of what he possesses, and a woman's husband is the owner of what she possesses.. We are talking about ownership based on love, love that makes all the cells of your body come alive." (CSG p. 312)

No one of True Children can claim that he has been more united with Father. Mother was always side to side in all Father's difficulties. She is the one that knows best his heart and teachings. That's father's core teaching; wife inherits the position, authority everything from the husband. No matter if she has the same education or life course. But Mother proved with all her life, her complete obedience and unity with Father.

"She faced such difficult situations, but she always remained unshaken.. Throughout our life together, she has labored to care for me with complete, loving devotion.. The older I become, the more precious my wife is to me." (Autobiography)

Another core teaching is that husband and wife love is absolute, unique, unchanging and eternal. You know the words, "What God has joined, no man can separate." It's insane to think that TC can divorce their parents after father's death. It's irrational to say, that after ending in sp.w. Father will change his heart (which means his love is not True, Perfect and Eternal) True love for Mother is Father's unchanging heart. No problems can brake that love, Father explained:

"There is a saying that a fight between a husband and wife is like cutting water with a knife. When you cut water with a knife, it doesn't leave a trace. Likewise, even after fighting, a couple can put their foreheads together and giggle, and everything is settled. Only with love can peace come." (CSG p. 313)

The principle of growth says, that one learns and develops love through life experience, by living it in the daily life. Even TF cannot master love without his partner - Mother.

"True love is attained through life experience.. True love is not something that can be mastered through words, writings or general education. It's complete attainment comes only by living it. In this process of growing.. supposed to reach perfection by experiencing and understanding in daily life.. step by step." (CSG p. 320)

God appears through Father and Mother

"God cannot govern the physical world, He must appear with a body as the Father and Mother of all humankind." CSG1 p.56

"Then what kind of being is God? He is both our Father and Mother. The core is the parents. p. 58 Externally, God resembles men and internally He resembles women." p. 59

Hyungjin: "If I deny True Parents you must not follow me"

There are 57 quotes about True Mother in the original CSG. Here are some:

"You must become one with True Mother" (p. 2255) "The path that True Mother walks should absolutely not be as difficult as mine... (p. 2015)

"You have been born through True Mother. Remember that the favor bestowed by the True Parents is a great blessing that cannot be exchanged for anything in the whole universe."

Father's description of Mother's beauty
As a Peace-Loving Global Citizen

My wife has such a tremendous heart of love and care... Wanting to express my heart of regret toward my wife for all her sacrifices... She had a slightly self-conscious smile that made her look so sweet..

Throughout history, women have been persecuted, but.. the coming world will be one of reconciliation and peace based on women's maternal character, love, and sociability. The time is coming when the power of women will save the world.

It would seem that my wife would be devastated each time she faced such difficult situations, but she always remained unshaken. Even in the most difficult and unbearable circumstances, my wife never lost her serene smile. She always crossed over life's most difficult peaks successfully. When church members ask my wife's advice on raising their own children, she tells them: "Be patient and wait. The period when children wander is only temporary."

I have never raised my voice toward my wife. This is not because of my character, but because my wife has never given me cause to do so. Throughout our life together, she has labored to care for me with complete, loving devotion.

So this great saint of world.. now that I am old I make many new demands on her, and she always responds... The older I become, the more precious my wife is to me.
