Join us as we explore what new developments in science teach about God, the nature of consciousness and the afterlife. Mass media plays an increasingly prominent role in discussions of faith and belief and IMAP proposes that media take the lead in promoting the new research on the intersection of science and spirituality.

God & Science

What does science teach us about God and the afterlife?

Tuesday, June 25, 2024 @ 2-3 PM EDT

There are developments in science that reveal the nature of consciousness, and affirm the afterlife and God. The mass communication media plays a prominent role in discussions of faith and belief, and the International Media Association for Peace proposes that the media take the lead in promoting research breakthroughs on the intersection of science and spirituality.

Our panel includes Dr. Kathy Winings, Vice President, International Relief Freedom Foundation & President of the Board, Educare, and Dr. Dinshaw Dadachanji, Research Director, Hyo Jeong International Foundation for Environmental Peace, with moderator Pierre Beauregard, Universal Peace Federation's IMAP Coordinator, Canada.
