

IMAP USA: South Korea's Political Crisis - A View from the North - Jan 28 @ 2pm

Hans Moyer
January 27, 2025

South Korea's Political Crisis: A View from the North

Tuesday, January 28th, 2025: 2-3 PM EST

Jacco Zwetsloot
Host, NK News Podcast

Jenny Town
Senior Fellow,
Stimson Center

Joseph Terwilliger
Professor, Columbia
University Irving
Medical Center

Peggy Yujiri
Moderator
Executive Director,
UPF Colorado

Sponsored by the International Media Association for Peace
of Universal Peace Federation
<https://us.upf.org>

A month after President Yoon Suk Yeol declared martial law, the political crisis in South Korea continues. What is the impact in the DPRK, where last January Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un announced that peaceful reunification was no longer possible and who now considers South Korea as a hostile state? Does the DPRK view the ouster of Yoon as a welcome development or as a destabilizing threat? Join us and our panel of experts as we explore the unique view from North Korea.

Register here now to participate:
us-upf-org.zoom.us/meeting/register/ALTvc_aZTI-LEoWLxz1RsA#/registration

Tuesday, January 28, 2025 @ 2-3 pm EST

See flyer attached

South Korea's Political Crisis: A View from the North

Tuesday, January 28th, 2025: 2-3 PM EST

Jacco Zwetsloot

Host, NK News
Podcast

Jenny Town

Senior Fellow,
Stimson Center

Joseph Terwilliger

Professor, Columbia
University Irving
Medical Center

Peggy Yujiri

Moderator
Executive Director,
UPF Colorado

A month after President Yoon Suk Yeol declared martial law, the political crisis in South Korea continues. What is the impact in the DPRK, where last January Supreme Leader Kim Jong Un announced that peaceful reunification was no longer possible and who now considers South Korea as a hostile state? Does the DPRK view the ouster of Yoon as a welcome development or as a destabilizing threat? Join us and our panel of experts as we explore the unique view from the North.

Sponsored by the International Media Association for Peace
of Universal Peace Federation

LIVE STREAM

US.UPF.ORG/LIVE

Zoom Registration

@UPFUSA

@UPFUSA