Women's Journey on the Road to Peace

Where many paths merge at the crossroads of unity

Tuesday, September 22, 2026 @ 2-3 PM Eastern Time

You are cordially invited to join UPF IMAP for an insightful and timely webinar exploring how women can play a pivotal role in bringing peaceful resolution to today's difficult conflicts and, together, blaze a path toward greater peace and harmony among families, religions, communities and nations.

The Focus: The webinar will bring together women who are taking meaningful action in different fields and who share a common aspiration: to help create a more peaceful world for our children and grandchildren to inherit.

The timing of this program is especially meaningful. September 21 is the United Nations International Day of Peace. The webinar will take place the following day, to extend that spirit by exploring the important contributions women can make toward building peace in their families, communities, nations, and the world.

Our panel includes Cindy Pfeiffer, Regional Coordinator For North America International Association of First Ladies for Peace (IAFLP); Joy Garratt, State Representative of New Mexico; Mika Deshotel, Education Director, HerTribe, WFP USA. Moderated by: Jennifer Fiala Trench, Regional Director, Massachusetts, IMAP USA.
