Last Thursday we organized a celebration of the UN Day in partnership with the largest mosque in Norway. The topic was, «for cooperation, against polarization and for common values. Around 35 guests participated in the event.

We had speakers from the Catholic Church, the Sikh community, the Jewish community, the Hindu community and imams from the mosque and from the Muslim Dialogue Network in Norway. The Minister from the Norwegian Lutheran Church that was scheduled to participate, had to cancel due to cold.

Most preparations for the event were done by the mosque who offered nice Pakistani dinner for all guests after the two hour long meeting.
