

Stopping the Violence: Law and Teens - Bridging the Trust Gap - Aug 2nd @ 2 PM

Zagery Oliver
August 1, 2023

Bridging the trust gap between teens & law enforcement
DC activist C-Webb devotes his life to opening other doors for gangs, and curbing street violence
Wednesday August 2, 2023 @ 2-3 PM ET

With Special Guest:

Curtis "C-Webb" Mozie
Filmmaker and Founder, Tale of the Tape Foundation
Washington, DC

Very Curtis Mozie known as 'C-Webb,' is without a doubt a social change leader in Washington DC. For over 30 years, he has documented the life and death of youth lost to gun violence. He started Tale Of The Tape Foundation to produce films as a catalyst for principles of prevention. His films have enabled unique collaborations within the neighborhood.

Very few are able to bridge the trust gap between law enforcement and teenagers. Curtis has been a 'fit' for this schism because of his former experience as a law enforcement officer, and his TOT Foundations' video captures of their regular social interactions in basketball games; crisis situations of an active shooting' hospital rooms; and post-situation interviews where sentiments are developed into heartfelt stories to which the youth in DC respond. Curtis often receives calls from children of murdered parents asking for a copy of their parents' videos whom they never met, to see how they smiled, walked, and talked, all taken away due to acts of gun violence.
