

Stopping the Violence - Redefining Re-entry - What Works - August 30 @ 2 PM

Zagery Oliver
August 29, 2023

STOPPING THE VIOLENCE
Wednesday, August 30, 2023, 2 PM EST
Redefining Re-Entry:
What Works
Entities in Los Angeles County have launched programs to create employment opportunities for "at-risk" youth/adults in L.A. County.

Brad Carson
Employment Resource Coordinator
Office of Probation
Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors

Hosted By: Rev. Zagery Oliver
Executive Vice-President, Universal Peace Federation, USA

Register for the Zoom Webinar

Redefining Re-Entry: What Works
Innovative Los Angeles County programs to create employment opportunities for "at-risk" youth and adults

Wednesday, August 30, 2023 @ 2-3 PM EDT

With Special Guest:

Brad Carson
Employment resource coordinator in the Office of Probation and member of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors

Brad Carson is a community change agent and urban futurist known for his transformative work in creating safer communities. With a mission to break the cycle of repeat criminal offenders and intergenerational gang violence, he focuses on addressing spiritual, social, and economic causes through job opportunities and education. Brad coordinates efforts among gang-truce peacemakers, community-based organizations, faith-based groups, and social service agencies to ensure the job readiness of local individuals, aiming to provide them with meaningful employment.

Register here to join: us-upf-org.zoom.us/j/945123456789

Wednesday, August 30 @ 2 PM EDT

Hosted by:

Rev. Zagery Oliver
Executive Vice President
Universal Peace Federation USA

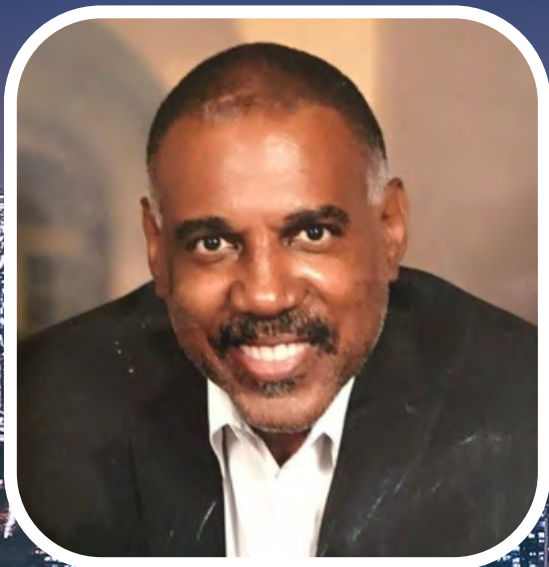

see flier attached

STOPPING THE VIOLENCE

Wednesday, August 30, 2023, 2 PM EST

Redefining Re-Entry: What Works

Entities in Los Angeles County have launched programs to create employment opportunities for “at-risk” youth/adults in L.A. County.

Brad Carson

Employment Resource Coordinator
Office of Probation
Los Angeles County
Board of Supervisors

Hosted By: Rev. Zagery Oliver
Executive Vice-President, Universal
Peace Federation, USA

Register for the Zoom Webinar

