Brigadier General (ret.) Arnold N. Gordon-Bray

Brigadier General Arnold N. Gordon-Bray, a retired US Army veteran with over three decades of service, is dedicated to curbing crime and violence in America. As the owner of ANGB Consulting LLC and a consultant for Threat Emulations, he leverages his extensive leadership experience in strategic communications and combat operations to address issues of national interest. Passionate about transforming outcomes for underserved, underrepresented, undervalued, disenfranchised communities, Gordon-Bray actively engages with nonprofit organizations like 360 Cradle to Careers, focusing on STEM education and innovation networks.

His military background, including commanding forces in Iraq and contributing to AFRICOM operations, uniquely positions him to advise on strategic, operational, and humanitarian concerns. With a wealth of experience in modernization and experimentation, Gordon-Bray is committed to enhancing community safety and promoting diversity, veteran's needs, and education across the nation.
