Stopping the Violence Webcast

Service can stop crime

Community service fosters healing, unity, and can reduce violence across America

Wednesday, October 30, 2024 from 2 to 3 p.m. EDT

Diane Ferrari is a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and is currently serving as the JustServe Specialist and Assistant Communication Director for the Raleigh, North Carolina Region. A West Coast native, Diane grew up in Los Angeles county and lived most recently in the San Francisco Bay Area for 17 years before moving to Youngsville NC a year ago. Diane has degrees in History and Family Life from Brigham Young University and has been an instructor and volunteer in elementary schools. An outdoor adventurer, she enjoys traveling, day tripping, hiking, visiting national parks, and cooking. Diane finds joy in serving others and her family.

A committed humanitarian, Diane has assisted several organizations and non-profits through volunteerism, event planning, projects and JustServe. As JustServe specialist of the San Jose CA region, she assisted non-profits from Monterey to San Francisco- spearheading drives, projects and workshops for organizations such as MAP, Magic Yarn Project, Second Harvest Food Bank, Love Never Fails, and several others. She is passionate about community service and believes engaging in service promotes healing, unity and love.
