Victory for the 2nd English
Resonating Prayer Workshop
May 21 - 23, 2026

24 trainees came together to dive into a deeper resonance with Heavenly Parent and True Parents in the 3-day Resonating Prayer Workshop. Below are a couple testimonies.

Pastor Jasmine Santoro

San Diego Family Church

It was only a month ago that my husband and I were asked to step into the role of co-pastors of San Diego Family Church. I accepted with a heart full of gratitude, but also with a deep sense of inadequacy. I knew our center had to be True Mother — but within that first month, waves of self-doubt kept rising within me. I felt spiritual walls I couldn't seem to break through. When I heard about this three-day workshop, I knew I needed it.

On the first day, when Ryuichi san asked us to bring our question to God — "Why am I here?" — I went into the Cheonshim Won expecting direction, expecting answers about San Diego, about what steps to take next. Instead, what I received was something I wasn't expecting at all.

I felt an overwhelming warmth, and the only answer that came was:

*"Because I love you." That was it.

In that moment, I realized that Heavenly Parent had brought me here simply because He loves me. Not because of what I could accomplish. Not because of what I needed to fix. Just love. And in receiving that love, I also realized how much

I had been carrying things on my own — relying on my own strength, my own capabilities — when God wanted to walk this path with me.

I had been so focused on creating change in San Diego, change in the members, change in the environment. But in that grace, I saw clearly that I had been focused on the wrong thing. My true subject is my personal relationship with Heavenly Parent and True Parents. Everything else flows from that. That is the pillar.

The second thing that moved me deeply was reflecting on True Mother's situation. As members brought their frustrations to me — about our movement, about the challenges we face — I found myself praying in the Cheonshim Won and feeling something shift. The person who sees these issues most clearly, the one who has to face them more than anyone, is True Mother herself. I was reminded of Jesus in his final days, when even those closest to him didn't fully understand. What hurt him most wasn't the opposition from outside — it was that his beloved disciples didn't yet understand. And still, he had to trust them.

I felt that True Mother carries that same heart toward us. As her children, as blessed families — she knows our struggles more than anyone. And yet she trusts us completely. That realization brought me to a place of deep repentance. How many times had I made her worry? How many times had I not understood? And yet she still believes in us and prays for us.

That is why I want to make a determination: that when True Mother is released, I can tell her with confidence — “I am different than when you went in. And we did this together.”

These three days reminded me that Cheonshim Won is not just a blessing — it is a lifeline. I want to carry that conviction back to San Diego. Not as something distant or gradually attained, but as something I can claim right now — unity with True Mother, in this moment, in every prayer. And I want to expand that environment so that every member in San Diego can experience this same grace and love.

Thank you to the staff, the leaders, and everyone who made this possible. And above all, thank you to our Heavenly Parent and True Parents for this extraordinary grace.

Rosie Muyongo

Seattle Family Church

My name is Rosie Muyongo, originally from the Philippines, and I have been living in Seattle, Washington for about 25 years. My husband Charles and I are part of the 30,000 Couples Blessing. I want to share what I experienced and realized during these three days.

When I first heard about the 3-Day Spirituality Workshop, I was genuinely excited. A 40-day workshop had always felt out of reach for me — I work full-time, and taking that kind of leave simply isn't possible. So when this opportunity came, I was determined to attend. And as it turned out, my husband happened to have his vacation approved for the entire month — right when the workshop was scheduled. Heaven truly works in mysterious ways.

But as the workshop drew closer, conflicting voices began filling my head. I realized I had booked a flight thinking the event would finish by lunchtime on the last day — I didn't know it was a full three-day program. My return flight was at 5:48 that afternoon. On top of that, the ticket was expensive, and small distractions kept pulling at my attention even after I arrived — forgotten items, little inconveniences, things that seem insignificant but can quietly put you in a place where you cannot receive.

That first night, I honestly wasn't sure I was in the right place. But I made a determination: I would not let these small things become a reason to close my heart. And from that point, something began to shift.

I thought I knew Cheonshim Won well. Since the opening of the Cheonshim Won in Seattle in 2023, I have been attending devotions regularly. When Ryuichi came to Seattle in 2024, that was when we truly began. So many days, so many nights of jeongseong — I felt I already knew this place in my heart, already knew Holy Mother Han, already understood what it meant to pray there.

But coming here, I realized how little I actually knew. How small my experience truly was. My prayer here was different from my prayer at home. Something deeper opened up. And what kept coming to me as I prayed was this: Heavenly Parent's dream is not distant. Heavenly Parent's dream is our reality. What makes it distant is the distance that I myself create.*

That was the deepest realization of these three days.

I also felt deep repentance. True Mother has given us everything we need. She provided us with Cheonshim Won — a place where we can meet Heavenly Parent, where we can learn to mobilize the spirit world. And yet, as I became immersed in the struggles of daily life and pastoral work, I forgot. I forgot what True Mother had been asking of us. I forgot the tools she had placed in our hands.

I am grateful to have been here. Not because I am special — as Ryuichi pointed out, we are not special in and of ourselves. But Heavenly Parent loves everyone equally and completely. What determines whether True Parents and True Mother are truly alive and present in our lives is entirely up to us — whether we open that door or keep it closed.

I leave these three days with a renewed heart and a clear determination to return to Seattle and use what True Mother has given us through Cheonshim Won — fully, faithfully, and without forgetting again.

Thank you to Secretary General Ryuichi Kishimoto, all the staff, and my fellow participants. And above all, thank you to our Heavenly Parent and True Parents for this grace.

What is Cheonshim Won?

(from the Chambumo Ron)

On October 10, 2020, True Mother gave Jeongshim Won (情心苑, Garden of Heart and Emotion), the prayer hall at the training center, a new name, christening it “Cheonshim Won” (天心苑, Garden of Heaven’s Heart). Establishing Cheonshim Won as a providential organization, she designated it as a place to nurture second- and third-generation spiritual leaders for Cheon Il Guk.

I have brought the third generation forward to establish the tradition of the providence. While I am on earth, I will create all environments to be free-flowing, like running water. I will plan and develop Cheonshim Won as a place to cultivate talented individuals as pure water who can communicate with the pure and clean heart of Heaven.

Cheonshim Won is the worldwide headquarters for jeongseong (devotions). It is the main sanctuary for jeongseong in Cheon Il Guk, the main headquarters for the spiritual providence, and the center for developing the spirituality of Cheon Il Guk leaders and blessed families. Cheonshim Won is a place where blessed families can resonate with the heart of Heaven.

When we are on the same frequency as Heavenly Parent and True Parents’ hearts, we experience resonance with them. When we achieve resonance in unity with Heavenly Parent and True Parents, we can hear their voices. Therefore, prayer is not a monologue but resonance with Heavenly Parent and True Parents’ heart. ...
