

FFWPU Santa Fe, Argentina's Divine Principle seminar, gathers 22 participants

Carlos Vargas
September 4, 2024

In Santa Fe, a Divine Principle seminar took place, gathering 22 participants along with 8 staff members. The program commenced at 10 in the morning with warm welcoming remarks from President Esperanza Gómez, who expressed gratitude to everyone present and emphasized the significance of the gathering.

Following the opening address, Director Gustavo delivered lectures focusing on the fundamental aspects of the Divine Principle. Throughout the seminar, an atmosphere of closeness and camaraderie prevailed, allowing all participants to feel comfortable and at ease.

Open dialogue and active engagement enriched the presentations, enabling families to share their unique experiences and perspectives. Beyond study and reflection, the meeting also strengthened the sense of community and unity among attendees.