Mullet, Albania: From May 22 to 24, 2026, the Albanian Blessed Family community convened at the Mullet Training Centre for its annual gathering. Bringing together 84 participants, the three-day workshop served as a vital platform for spiritual rejuvenation, familial bonding, and community solidarity. The program successfully balanced collective educational sessions with tailored tracks for different demographic groups, fostering a deeply meaningful and supportive atmosphere for all attending families.

Core Pillars of the Curriculum

The workshop's curriculum was strategically designed to address the holistic needs of the faith community, focusing on five primary pillars:

- Spiritual Growth
- Family Relationships
- Counseling and Support
- Health and Wellness
- Fellowship and Community

Targeted Generational Breakout Sessions

To ensure maximum impact and relevance, the workshop featured specialized tracks tailored to the specific needs of different generations:

- Blessed Members (First Generation): Focused on long-term faith endurance, marital enrichment, and navigating the evolving responsibilities of spiritual leadership within both the home and the wider community.
- Second Generation Youth: Centered on identity development, peer support networks, and translating inherited faith values into personal conviction amid modern societal challenges.
- Children's Program: Utilized age-appropriate activities, storytelling, and interactive play to introduce core values and build lasting friendships in a fun, faith-filled environment.

Special Guidance: Internal Growth and Global Updates

A major highlight of the gathering was the special guidance delivered by Mr. Jacques Marion, Co-Chair of UPF Europe and the Middle East (EUME). His presentations provided critical insights divided into two vital areas:

- Internal Growth: Practical wisdom on deepening one's personal and familial faith journey.
- Global Updates: Crucial providential updates regarding activities and developments in Japan and Korea.

Conclusion

The 2026 Annual Gathering at the Mullet Training Centre concluded as a resounding success. By addressing both internal spiritual needs and external global realities, the workshop left the 84 participants feeling unified, uplifted, and better equipped to cultivate exemplary Blessed Families across Albania.
