Albania Celebrates Inspiring "Cheonmyeong Worship" in Heartfelt Devotion to True Mother

TIRANA, ALBANIA - On July 12, 2026, a powerful spirit of devotion swept through the Albanian community as members gathered for the Cheonmyeong Worship. Held as a sacred offering of Jeongseong (devotion) for True Mother, the event served as a profound opportunity for participants to align their hearts with the heavens through praise, reflection, and deep spiritual unity.

Singing of the Inexpressible Heart of Heavenly Parent

The worship service began with an atmosphere of intense gratitude and reverence. Through beautifully prepared songs of praise, those in attendance were able to touch the deep, often inexpressible heart of Heavenly Parent.

The music and prayers served as a bridge, allowing the congregation to:

Deeply empathize with the sacrificial path and heart of True Mother.

Offer their collective sincere gratitude for the continuous blessings bestowed upon the region.

Reignite their personal spiritual commitment to the providence.

Key Address: Becoming the "Small Needles" of True Parents

A central highlight of the program was a powerful and deeply moving message delivered by Balkan Regional Director Gani Rroshi.

Director Rroshi spoke on the profound value of living a life of "attending Heaven" at this pivotal moment in providential history. He introduced a beautiful metaphor, urging all those present to become "small needles" in the hands of True Parents.

Key Takeaways from Director Rroshi's Message:

The Metaphor of the Needle: Just as a needle must lead so that the thread can follow to mend and bind fabric together, members must act as sharp, precise instruments of peace and unity, paving the way for True Parents' vision to be realized.

The Urgency of the Era: He emphasized the immense value and blessing of living in this current era, reminding the congregation of the responsibility that comes with witnessing these historic times.

A Life of Attendance: True devotion is found in daily, active attendance of Heavenly Parent and True Parents, making their joy and sorrow our own.

"This worship was not just a gathering, but a deep spiritual awakening. Looking around, you could see the palpable connection of every heart in the room to the essence of True Mother's love."

A Grace-Filled Offering of Tears and Devotion

The sermon resonated deeply with everyone in the hall. The congregation responded with overwhelming emotion, offering their heartfelt devotion to Heaven through tears of repentance, gratitude, and determination.

The Cheonmyeong Worship in Albania concluded as a highly successful, grace-filled occasion. It left the local community spiritually recharged, united in purpose, and determined to move forward as the "small needles" designed to sew together a world of lasting peace.
