CFC NOVA Center 11:00 AM

Hello brothers and sisters, this Sunday we are going to celebrate the Jewish festival of lights, Hanukkah, which begins on December 14th and lasts for 8 days. Adalia Tonneyck will lead this family-friendly service that includes a retelling of the Hanukkah story, a special performance song and a dreidel game. Please note that Kodan will make their end-of-year fundraising appeal at the end of service. The KEA members will prepare lunch, and after service anyone who registered for the Autumn Great Works can inherit the Tree of All Things holy candle (bring your own candle).
