

Capital Family Church: Memo from Pastor Miyako

Rev. Kenji & Keiko Miyako and Family

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Capital Family Church,

I have decided to begin sending you a pastoral letter every week from now on. Usually, it's on Thursdays, but this first one is today.

It has already been almost a year since I was appointed to this community. I have gradually grown accustomed to life in America, and although I recently returned from a trip to Japan, I was surprised to find myself feeling, "I'm home," when I came back to the United States. To be honest, even during the World Cup, I found myself cheering for America more than Japan.

As someone who has come to love America so much, what I have been feeling lately is a strong desire to build deeper relationships with all of you in this beloved community. Because it is often difficult to arrange visits through appointments, I have decided to start visiting you, sometimes without prior notice. But I will try to text you if I have your number. There may be times when you are out, and we miss each other, but if you are at home and hear the doorbell, I would be so happy if you would open the door—even if you see a Japanese man standing there—without pretending not to be home. Of course, I would be even more delighted if you could welcome me with an appointment. My phone and email are below.

Also, as part of one of our new initiatives, I would like to begin holding a Wish Paper Offering Ceremony at the beginning of every month. This is a sacred ceremony in which we welcome the Absolute Good Spirits into the CSW and offer the HJ Offering Wish Papers that have been prepared, presenting them before Heaven. It is a special time where we lift up our personal wishes to God and make a firm determination to solve our problems by receiving the cooperation of the Absolute Good Spirit.

For example, if many members write prayers for the liberation of True Mother on their Wish Papers and we all gather together at the CSW to offer them in prayer, imagine how much comfort and joy this will bring to Heaven. I truly hope that as many people as possible will participate.

- Date & Time: Thursday, July 2, 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM
- Venue: Capital Family Church Cheonshim Won at 3600 NY Ave NE.
- Who can participate: Those who have already submitted a Wish Paper, as well as those who would like to prepare and offer one on the spot.
- Dress Code: White or purple attire

Order of Ceremony:

Absolute Good Spirit Entrance → Reverent Bow →
Representative Prayer → Offering Ceremony → Message →
Resonance Prayer → Eok Mansei

As we go through this hot summer, please take good care of your health and enjoy precious time with your families.

I look forward to connecting with you again next week.
