Newly-weds blessed by multi-faith extended family

Dhiren Katwa

Theresa and Daniel's wedding reception last Saturday was one which stood out from the rest. The variety and diversity from every dimension was simply unique. Attended by around 140 guests, the gathering truly reflected the multi-cultural make-up, certainly of Birmingham. The master of ceremonies was David, the bride's father. He introduced and called upon guests who had agreed to perform an item in honour of the newly-weds. The lilac-themed event began with a prayer by Rev Winnie Gordon, followed by a reading from the Bible by Natasha, the bride's sister. The programme also featured wedding songs in Punjabi and Urdu, respectively, by Pawanjit Ubhi and Sabira Karmal. Swaran Talwar, Rama Joshi and Raksha Solanki added an Indian flavour to the fusion by performing a wedding song in Punjabi. A poem was read by Marjorie Saunders, representing the Jewish Progressive Synagogue. Colin and Maureen Foxall from the Christian faith sang 'Brother, Sister, a song by the Earles, with David on the guitar, was yet another highlight of this round-table event. Guests were treated to a sumptuous meal reflecting a world cuisine. The reception was held at Rowcath Pavilion in Bourville.

Let me serve you'. In addition, Sheikh Arif Abdul Hussain delivered, off the cuff, a powerful philosophical speech about love, marriage and the human birth. I, along with so many guests, were truly mesmerised and impressed at what Sheikh Arif, originally from Sorothi in Uganda, had to share, so eloquently too. Also showcased during the ceremony were two slide shows displaying photographs of Theresa and Daniel's journey so far. In addition,

David and Patricia Earle, who are doting parents to four grown-up children - all professionals in the medical field - are an exemplary husband and wife team who have devoted their lives to bringing people together, regardless of their differences. Their selflessness, generosity and mutual respect for all deserves full credit. Their home is a shrine in its own right, the sacredness of which radiates love, peace and unity to all those fortunate enough to know them.

David and Patricia Earle daughter's (Theresa, a medical doctor), public wedding in Birmingham, together with many people from other faiths. It is a great example of a successful tribal messiahship result. There was a beautiful report in the local newspaper for the Asian community.

DAS GÖTTLICHE PRINZIP

Einführung in die neue Offenbarung Gottes an Sun Myung Moon

Teil 1 Teil 2 Teil 3 Teil 4 Teil 5 Teil 6

DIE PRINZIPIEN DER SCHÖPFUNG

Woher kommen wir und warum sind wir hier?

Wir haben uns nicht selbst erschaffen. Wir sind das Resultat einer Ursache. Angesichts der Komplexität, Ordnung, Schönheit und Interdependenz des Universums mag man dessen Vorhandensein nicht dem Zufall zuschreiben. Wo aber finden sich Informationen über die Existenz eines Schöpfers? Informationen, die über dogmatische Glaubenssätze hinausgehen und auch unsere Vernunft befriedigen? Der erste Teil von Das Göttliche Prinzip, über den die folgenden Seiten einen Überblick geben, beschreibt fundamentale Prinzipien, welche in allen Lebensformen erkennbar sind. Die Universalität dieser Prinzipien lässt einen Rückschluss auf das Wesen des Ursprungs aller Dinge zu, denn die Eigenschaften, die allen Dingen gemeinsam sind, müssen auch in deren Ursprung vorhanden sein. Warum existiert das Universum? Welche Bedeutung hat der Mensch darin? Ein eindeutiges Verständnis um Gottes Schöpfungsabsicht ist von essentieller Bedeutung für unser Selbstverständnis. Das Göttliche Prinzip erläutert diese Zusammenhänge aus ungewöhnlicher Perspektive: aus der Perspektive Gottes.

THE DIVINE PRINCIPLE

Introduction to the new revelation of God to Sun Myung Moon

Part 2

OUR LIFE IN TWO WORLDS

Born to live forever

Do we continue to live or even after death and, if so, in what form? And for what purpose? Is there justice that goes beyond death? If yes, what consequences does this have for our daily life on earth? The Divine Principle explains these existential questions from the point of view of the Creator. It is very often we fail to grasp God's original "vision" that we can recognize nearly all aspects of the fascinating connection between our earthly life and our life in the next world.

EVERY PERSON PASSES THROUGH THREE NATURAL STAGES IN LIFE

Introduction to the New Revelation of God to Sun Myung Moon

Part 3

WHY DOES EVIL EXIST?

The Conflict within Human Beings

Have you ever harmed anyone intentionally? Maybe you yourself have been a victim of violence, abuse or deceit. From where do these impulses come, that make us indifferent to the sorrow of other people and lead us to hate, despise or abuse others? For centuries philosophers and theologians have attempted to answer the following question: How is it possible to reconcile the evidently evil acts of human beings and the loving suffering in the world with the belief in a loving, omnipotent and omniscient God? The Divine Principle reveals logical explanations to these fundamental questions and identifies a real event at the beginning of human history as the main cause of the conflicted existence.

WHAT ARE THE LESSONS?

An Actual Incident We should understand that the original Fall is not a fairy tale although explained in symbolic terms in the Bible and other traditions. It was an actual incident, a record of a real event that happened at the beginning of our life.	Order of Love We should realize that love must follow a precise order. To observe or not to observe this order is a matter of life and death.
God's Pain How often would we like to see our loved ones who have been hurt by the Fall? Nothing can be more painful for parents than the suffering of their beloved children.	Redeemer = True Parents We need a Savior, but not only a Savior as a man, who replaces the position of Adam. It would be a Savior who restores the position of both God's part and daughter (a man and a woman).
Much Evidence We should know that if there are other evil acts, we should not ignore the evidence of the Fall.	What Next? What? The conditions seem to repeat a story of the Fall. Because we are not omniscient, we cannot see the way. Is there any way, to go beyond the Fall? stay in touch!!

THE DIVINE PRINCIPLE GENERAL OVERVIEW

The Divine Principle is a revelation from God to Sun Myung Moon. It offers revolutionary new insights into the nature and work of our creator. The Divine Principle is divided into three main parts:

- The Principle of Creation
- The Fall of Man
- The Restoration of God's Ideal

Sun Myung Moon (1916 - 2012)

Healed the age-old mystery of the Fall of Man through his original Divine Principle. He revealed the truth about the Fall of Man and the restoration of God's ideal. He is the only man who has been able to do this. He is the only man who has been able to do this. He is the only man who has been able to do this.

ANDORRA A BLESSED COUPLE IN THE NEWS

Andorra's national newspaper, Diari D'Andorra, published a feature on "multi-religious love," in which three Andorran interfaith couples explained how they live together without conflict. The article featured a Muslim-Catholic couple, a Hindu-Catholic couple and a Buddhist-Catholic couple through an interview of the Unificationist national leader Lluís Babi, a native Andorran; and his wife Chatiboot from Thailand.

Les últimes paraules que va dir el pastor de l'Església de la Unificació, Chatiboot, el dia del seu casament, el 1992, van ser: "El meu messies és Jesús". Els dos van ser molt feliços i van celebrar el seu casament amb molta alegria. Chatiboot és una dona de 35 anys i Lluís és un home de 32 anys. Van conèixer el dia del seu casament i van decidir casar-se. Chatiboot és una dona de 35 anys i Lluís és un home de 32 anys. Van conèixer el dia del seu casament i van decidir casar-se.

THE TORU GOTO CASE IN JAPAN ABDUCTED AND CONFINED FOR OVER 12 YEARS

- Toru Goto confined by relatives for 12 years and five months for religious 'deprogramming' by an Evangelical pastor and another person
- Brother, sister-in-law and sister to pay about 150,000 €
- Deprogrammer Takashi Miyamura to pay about 75,000 €
- Evangelical pastor Yasutomo Matsumaga to pay about 30,000 €
- UN Human Rights Committee denounced the persistent impunity of a cultural practice in Japan

Pastor Yasutomo Matsumaga of the Nikko Evangelical Christian Church (Niigata City) was ordered to pay 30,000 € and another professional deprogrammer, Mr. Takashi Miyamura, 75,000 €.

Until now, Japanese courts have dismissed the illegal nature of abduction and attempted forcible religious deconversion in confinement conditions. They have routinely ruled that such cases were not criminal but "mere talks between parents and children." More women than men are victims of this practice. In Japanese culture, parents consider children to be under their authority regardless of age.

Toru Goto's case was also dismissed as a criminal case but exceptionally not as a civil case.

ABDUCTION AND CONFINEMENT

On 13th November 2014, the Tokyo High Court issued a ruling ordering five people (three close relatives of the victim, an Evangelical pastor and another person) to pay damages to Toru Goto, a victim of abduction and attempts of forcible religious deconversion in confinement conditions, from September 1995 to February 2008.

The first three trial defendants (his brother, sister-in-law and younger sister) were ordered to pay a total amount of 150,000 €.

In 1986, Mr. Goto, then 23, became a member of the Unification Church. In 1987, there was a first attempt of kidnapping and confinement by his father and other relatives but he managed to escape about a month later. In order to avoid another similar experience, he cut off all the links with his family.

Eight years later, in September 1995, the parents of the plaintiff, his elder brother and wife, and younger sister, kidnapped him from their home in Hiya City (Tokyo) according to instructions from deprogrammer Takashi Miyamura and Yasutomo Matsumaga, a Christian minister. For about 12 years, he was detained by his family in various apartments which had been technically equipped for confinement conditions. Pastor Matsumaga regularly visited him to urge him to leave the Church, knowing he was deprived of his freedom by his family.

During his confinement, Mr. Goto attempted to escape several times but he was caught every time. Even when he had influenza and developed a high fever, he was not allowed to visit a clinic.

In November 2007, it seems as though family members started arguing about whether to go on with the confinement or not, due to the financial burdens it imposed. In February 2008, his brother, his sister-in-law, his mother and his sister suddenly ordered him to leave the apartment. He was then emaciated and suffering from a serious state of starvation. He was hospitalized and diagnosed with malnutrition. For a while, he could barely stand on his feet.

THE LEGAL FIGHT

In April 2008, Mr. Goto submitted a criminal complaint to the Ogikubo Police Station. However, the police did not conduct any serious criminal investigation and named the case over to the Tokyo District Public Prosecutor's Office.

On 9th December 2009, the prosecutor decided to waive the indictment of the criminal complaint on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

On 23rd June 2010, Mr. Goto appealed to the Tokyo Committee for the Request of Prosecution with the hope of reopening the criminal case.

On 6th October 2010, Mr. Goto's appeal was rejected on the ground that there were too many doubts to consider the case as an attempt of compulsion, capture, confinement and injury.

On 31st January 2011, he filed a civil lawsuit against his family members and the deprogrammers.

The 13th November 2014 ruling was a landmark victory for Toru Goto and for the members of his Japanese Association of Victims of Abduction and Forced Religious Deconversion.

In 2013, the annual reports of the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom and the U.S. State Department cited Japan's judicial system for turning a blind eye to the kidnapping and forced deprogramming of people in the Unification Church and other new religious movements over the past decades.

UN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE DENOUNCES TOKYO'S POLICY OF TURNING A DEAF EAR

In July 2013, Human Rights Without Frontiers submitted a report on the general issue of attempts of forcible change of religion in Japan to the Human Rights Committee in order to bring to their attention its concerns about the total impunity of non-state actors who abducted and confined converts to new religious movements until they recant their new religious faith.

On 14th November 2013, the problem was raised by the Human Rights Committee in its list of issues addressed to Japan in the following terms: "Please comment on reports of cases of abduction, forced conversion and forced deconversion, which were not investigated and prosecuted by the State party."

On 15-16th July 2014, Japan's human rights record was reviewed in the framework of the 111th session of the UN Human Rights Committee.

On 20th August 2014, the UN Human Rights Committee wrote in its Concluding Observations:

"Abduction and forced deconversion

The Committee is concerned at reports of abductions and forced confinement of converts to new religious movements by members of their families in an effort to deconvert them (arts. 2, 9, 18, 26).

The State party should take effective measures to guarantee the right of every person not to be subject to coercion that would impair his or her freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief."

In the last 40 years, hundreds of adult members of new religious movements - mainly the Unification Church and Jehovah's Witnesses - were kidnapped and confined by their family to be deconverted.

On 7th November 2014, a couple living in Hiroshima City submitted a criminal charge against their family, a pastor and other kidnapers for being abducted, confined for six days until their escape and subjected to attempted forcible deconversion.

For more than one year, Masato Ishibashi has been missing from his church and his job when visiting his family at New Year. Although he had sent a call for help to a fellow believer and had left a written statement to his lawyer asking for to be rescued in case of disappearance, the police refused to summon his parents.

Dear Robin,

Parliament Week 2013 was the biggest, the best and the most diverse yet, and we would like to thank you for helping to make it happen. Universal Peace Federation represents one of 230 organisations that signed up to be a Parliament Week partner, and without your effort, creativity and hard work, the week would simply not have happened. It is inspiring that so many organisations partnered with Parliament Week this year and committed to putting on such a diverse and creative programme of events; the quality and variety was astounding. Many events took place outside Westminster, giving people all over the UK ways to connect with, celebrate, discuss and challenge Parliament and parliamentary democracy.

For some people Parliament Week will be the start of a closer relationship with their democracy. We hope that many more people will be inspired by your own event to find out more about what happens in Westminster, in their local community and about the many ways they can make their voices heard.

Thank you once again and we hope that you will take part in Parliament Week in years to come.

Yours sincerely,

Rt Hon John Bercow MP

The editor of the magazine, Giorgio Gasperoni, received for the fourth time since 2012 a letter of appreciation from the President of Italy, Giorgio Napolitano. The magazine is send to him regularly with a personal letter. After read by the president the magazine is placed at the Library of the Quirinal inside the presidential palace.

Bischof Pak und Dr. Wilson haben das Wesentliche der wahren Familienwerte erfasst und deren zentrales Anliegen zum Ausdruck gebracht. Aufgrund ihres profounden Verständnisses der Prinzipien haben sie diese dezent prägnant herausgearbeitet, dass man auch beim kursorischen Lesen des Buches einen bleibenden Eindruck erhält. Dieses Werk ist auf dem besten Weg, ein Klassiker und erstes Lesebuch für die Präsentation der wahren Familienwerte zu werden.

*Erzbischof George Augustus Stallings, Jr.
Washington D.C., USA*

Schon am Beginn der Bibel lesen wir, dass Gott den Menschen als Mann und Frau, Adam und Eva, erschaffen hat. Gemeinsam gründeten sie die erste Familie der Welt. Der erste Auftrag Gottes an den Menschen lautete: „Seid fruchtbar und vermehrt euch.“ In anderen Worten: errichtet Familien und bringt neue Generationen hervor. Von daher können wir verstehen, dass die Familie in geistiger und physischer Hinsicht der natürlichste und gesündeste Ort ist, um einen Menschen von Kindheit an zu erziehen. Kinder ohne Eltern oder mit nur einem Elternteil sind dazu bestimmt, ihr ganzes Leben lang an einem großen Defizit zu leiden. Wenn wir also den Wunsch haben, die Qualität des menschlichen Lebens zu vervollkommen, müssen wir die Familie stärken und junge Menschen ermutigen, den Bund der Ehe einzugehen.

*Oberabbiner Yitzhak Bar-Dat
Ramat-Gan, Israel*

Familienwerte stehen über jeder Klasse, Rasse, Religion, Politik und Ideologie. Sie entspringen der gottgegebenen Liebe, nicht nur zwischen Personen, sondern auch in der gesamten Welt der lebenden Dinge. Die beiden Autoren dieses Buches betreiben ihre Analyse und Darstellung von einer speziellen religiösen Perspektive aus, die sowohl erhebt als auch das Interesse weckt.

2020 VISION in Europe

- To substantiate Cheon Il Guk in at least one European nation by applying the vision and teachings of True Parents (as expressed in the 8 Great Textbooks) for the upliftment of the society and nation. To greatly increase the influence of True Parents' teachings and vision upon European society, governments and institutions.

2020 MISSION in Europe

- To reach a level of national influence in the strategic nations (Albania and Kosovo) by gaining a combined membership of 7% of the population for FFWPU (12k) CARP (20k) UPF/WFWP /Family Party (320k)(230k in Albania, 122k in Kosovo).
- To gain increasing influence in relationship to local and national government in the 6 Providential nations (Germany, United Kingdom, France, Italy, Austria and Switzerland) and other European nations, and also in relation to international and European Institutions located in Europe, through the increased membership and work of FFWPU, CARP, UPF and WFWP and the establishment of a European Family Party in cooperation with partners.

2020 CORE VALUES in Europe

- Education of the nation through the work of Tribal Messiahs and Home Churches (small groups): Creating a revolution of character, marriage and family centering on teaching the Divine Principle and bringing families to the World Peace Blessing.
- Supporting this through the growth of FFWPU Family Churches (and CARP centers) and Interreligious Blessed Family Associations in each city/town, which will educate and care for families and serve the society.
- Providential organizations: developing the work and social influence of UPF, WFWP, CARP and other organizations by applying the Divine Principle in society and forming partnerships with like minded organizations – resulting in the formation of a European Family Party.
- Raising a new generation of leaders rooted in the Divine Principle within and beyond our Movement.
