On April 28-29, we participated in a Net Beach Activity for Loving Our Earth. This event was held In the south of Taiwan, Kaohsiung Kezailiao fishing port on April 28 and in the north of Taiwan, New Taipei Longdong Bay.

This was initiated by a Buddhist organization to celebrate the birth of the Buddha. There were more than 1500 participants from Buddhism, I-Kuan Tao. And Some social organizations, including FFWPU and YSP Taiwan supported this event.

There were mobilization of more than 200 divers and cleared more than 1,000 kilograms of waste on the seabed and coast. It is hoped that this event will awaken people to love nature and protect the marine environment. We also have a successful interreligious cooperation.
