

With Rev. Shin and others

Reporter: K. Date, Translator: JG & MG

On November 16th, Continental Leader Rev. Shin, the Special Envoy for Paraguay, Mr. Seo, Professor Woo and our legal consultant, Michelle Byun visited Leda. Professor Woo is specially appointed by True Mother to research issues related to the environment and tree planting. Rev. Shin shared how True Mother is emphasizing the importance to the future of the Leda providence moving forward. On November 20th Mr. and Mrs. Fujiwara, Mr. Omoto and Mr. Yoshimura arrived.

<Left>From the left, Mr. Nakata, Professor Woo, Rev. Shin, legal consultant, Michelle Byun and Mr. Seo.

<Right> Looking into the process for Taro cultivation.

A strong interest was expressed about Kamaboko (fish cake), sausage and Pacu products that Mr. Kobashi makes.

Mr. Yoshimura, Mr. and Mrs. Fujiwara and Mr. Omoto arrived to Leda. Mr. Yoshimura and Mr. Omoto plan to stay in Leda three months and are ready to work enthusiastically.

Mr. Fujiwara is deeply moved by the work in Leda and is earnestly looking at ways to help the communities general situation. They all visited the village of Esperanza on the 21st.

Mr. Seo brought Holy items and Holy Wine. Mr. Mizuochi, Katsugoro and Mr. Date receive it through Mr. Nakata on November 20th.

<Left>Okusako is researching the quality of water and Taro growing.

<Right>Okusako, Professor Woo and Tosa. Tosa is going to take Aquidaban to go back home on the 25th.

Appreciated is his hard work and care shown in taking care of the Capybara and Deer.

