

Leda News 322

January 22, 2017

21-day workshop participants
in front of official residence

Reporter K. Date/Translator: JG & MG

On January 16th, thirty-one participants and ten staff members arrived by boat in order to attend a 21-day workshop. The energetic participants were junior and high school students and included many second-generation members

Mr. and Mrs Okusaku, Mr. Toyomura and Sr. Sixto arrived on the 18th.

Left: Welcome cake cutting (Rev. Aristides and Mr. Nakai in the center)

Right: All gather together to enjoy a tasty dinner

Lecture are given in the large lecture hall.

It is an energetic workshop filled with the power of youth. Lectures began on the 25th and activities are taking place in Leda and in the neighboring village of Esperanza.

Singing practice

Arriving in Leda: (right to left)
Cowboy Sr. Sixto, Mr. Toyomura
Mrs. Katharina Okusaku, and Mr. Okusaku

Left: Mr. Nakamura is changing the oil for the generator

Right: The tractor is working to build factories and residential areas

Left: Building a warehouse next to the office

Right: Mr. Mizuochi is making the roof for the salt water fish farms