By UPF Paraguay: On December 22, 2015 we organized a meeting with 21 Ambassadors for Peace to end the year and encourage everyone for a new beginning in next year, and to continue working together and fulfill the dream of True Parents.

Participants included a former senator, former minister of the Nation, university teachers, volunteers in front of some NGOs, social organizations between Presidents others.

The meeting served to end the year and prepare our hearts to receive year-end holidays, especially Christmas commemorates the birth of Jesus.
