The Queen of the Sales Success-Mindset invited me to a three hour workshop on Saturday morning.

A few years ago I recognized that I can grow much faster when I get help and, after a course of Thinking into Results by Bob Proctor, facilitated by Vivienne Posch, I invested in a mentoring course with Christine Schlonski.

This took me on a self-discovery path where I began to dabble in even more technological advances, set up a new website and dreamed of sharing my vision of a heart-centered, parental United Nations. That's my other webpage. Here I am working to capture my intent, vision and passion - to keep track, before it's too late.

Christine took me on a journey of Spiritual Money, a five star workshop in Hamburg and a new adventure into recognizing and investing in what I am meant to be doing.

A warm welcome.

Here you will find my offers to support you on your heart business
