MATCHING EDUCATION FOR PARENTS

Manoj Jacob

May 21 and May 28 - Matching 101 - Matching Education for Parents
Speakers: Michael and Christl Brunkhorst - UC Matching Advisors
Additional speakers if any - TBA

The two-part presentation is for parents to discuss more about the matching process. Parents need not already be in the matching process or have children of Blessing age to take part in this program.

Prerequisite: Participants should read the New Family Matching Handbook, available in hard copy as well as in ebook format at:
www.hsabooks.com/family-matching-handbook-2nd-edition Please read this handbook before attending the program and bring it with you. This handbook is the updated version, with approximately 70% new material.

Wednesday, May 21, 2014, at 7:30 in Classroom 1

Title: Matching 101 -- Part 1 - The New Matching Handbook

During this program, you will review updates to the matching procedure and discuss how to prepare your son or daughter for this process. You will review best practices, and what to do before you begin your search. This is the time to ask your questions.

Wednesday, May 28, 2014, at 7:30 in Classroom 1

Title: Matching 101 -- Part 2 - Family Matching Plan

During this program you will discuss how to begin your search, where to find your matching advisor, and how to create a matching plan together with your son or daughter. You will review the matching websites for use in finding a match and/or registering the engaged couple. You will discuss the development of a matching time schedule and how to best guide your adult child during the engagement period.
