

We hold 5-Day Transformative Divine Principle Seminars across Nepal

Santosh Kumar Paudel

January 14, 2017

The word of God and True parents had continuously spreading nationwide through the 5-Day Transformative Divine Principle Seminars. Each region or state with satellite, are connected to the office of FFWPU-Nepal and they are conducting the 5-Day Divine Principle Seminar.

In the first two weeks of January 2017, there were more than 300 high school and college students, who finished the 5 Day Seminar consecutively in three cities from January 3 to 7, and 2017, and from January 9 to 13, 2017 at the same day in different cities. This event is closely monitored and participated by our Special Envoy Hon. Ek Nath Dhakal and Rev. Santosh Kumar Paudel president of FFWPU-Nepal.

This Transformative Divine Principle Seminar is part of the Home Group activities, where in participants are being followed up with the report about providential activities and continuously education until they became a core member of CARP.

Hon. Ek Nath Dhakal gave a special address during the closing ceremony. He said: "Youth is the power, without youth nothing can happen, so youth must need to lead the moral revolution" and he added "That we all are one human family, so youth need to embrace the whole world as one family".

One of the workshops was personally handled by Rev. Santosh Kumar Paudel, National Leader in his home town. He gave lecture about the True Father Life course.

Reflection

- I'm very glad to join this workshop I have a dream but that was only for make myself and my family better but this workshop help me to know I'm also responsible for my society and my nation as well as for world. It help me to know god is parental god.
- I want to thank organizer FFWPU and CARP Nepal. From this workshop I learn to live for the sake of other and I realize I have to practice true love I determine I will keep my purity before marriage and I will make my family good.

As the result of these workshops, some of the participants are preparing for 21-day Divine Principle seminar and some other are interested to join our movement and dedicate their life of faith to Heavenly Parent and True Parents.
