November 2, 2015

By WFWP Dominican Republic: On November 2, 2015, we held a pure love campaign for children. On that day Mrs. Francisca Gomez of WFWP Dominican Republic taught very carefully about pure love and absolute sex to 40 students.

Some teachers who participated together with their students at the event, commented on the importance of this program and recommended that we teach this content in every single school because every student need this education, they said.
