

Burkina Faso's 70-day Blessing Campaign Supported by the King of Tenkodogo

Ky Thierry
February 22, 2018

As part of the 70-day condition that was launched to support the Africa Summit, a blessing campaign was also launched at the national level.

It is in this context that with the support and commitment of the King of Tenkodogo, a blessing was organized in this city for couples from a village close to the name of Wendtangan on January 13, 2018.

Having been prevented at the last minute, the King dispatched four of his ministers to represent him at the ceremony. The opening speech of the King read by his emissaries which was very moving and in line with the vision of the FFWPU, peace begins above all in the family.

Following the opening remarks, a presentation of the blessing was given by Vice President M. BARRE Harouna. The explanation of the stages of the blessing was given by director Blessed Family Department, Mr. NONGUIERMA Arouna. And Mr. and Mrs. TRAORE Bakary who resides in the city of Tenkodogo, were the officiators.

32 couples agreed to receive holy wine, receive the blessing of marriage from True Parents and observe 40-day separation period. A second phase of blessing is provided for those who were present without their spouse.

Indemnity Stick Ceremony

On February 22, 2018 we held the indemnity stick ceremony for 17 couples after their 40-day separation period in the village of Wendtangin.