The President of WFWP Portugal, Dr. Marta de Carvalho, received an honoured official invitation from the Community of Diplomatic Representatives of Portuguese Speaking Countries Governments (CPLP) to participate in the celebration of May 5th (International Day of Portuguese Language), which took place on May 14th 2024 at CPLP's headquarters.

The celebration took place at the CPLP Auditorium in Lisbon, and it was an occasion in which the WFWP Portugal President could meet some of the Ambassadors for Peace, who cherished her and took photos with her.

Dr. de Carvalho was also able to engage with two Diplomatic Ambassadors. One was from the Philippines and the other from Mozambique, her hometown, who even knew her family!

She also met the Secretary General and the Director of Culture, both from CPLP, to whom she introduced WFWP and requested a meeting with the Director of Culture who was interested in learning more about WFWP. They discussed how they can work together, moving forward with good values and other activities.

Dr. Marta de Carvalho also exchanged cards with a Historian Professor, Paulo Pinto, from Universidade Nova de Lisboa, to whom she introduced WFWP and discussed working together in the future.

Now we will be planning to make these meetings happen, both with the Director of Culture of the CPLP and with the Historian of Universidade Nova.

Finally, the WFWP Portugal President spoke and exchanged contacts with the Romanian singer Madalina Petre, a splendid young woman, with an extraordinary voice who, together with her partner, the Portuguese singer, Gonçalo Pires, made the event a cultural delight.
