Promoting Interfaith Cooperation and Strengthening Youth Education and Leadership

The Universal Peace Federation of Colombia held its 7th National Leadership Conference at the Bogotá National Congress to commemorate the UN International Youth Day.

About 80 national-level figures from politics, religions, and education attended, and 21 new ambassadors for peace were appointed.

The host, Senator Herman Blanco, emphasized the need for peaceful reunification of the Korean Peninsula and the important role of youth leadership.

Senator Karia Espinoza highlighted the need to restore moral values, reminding both youth and leaders of their shared responsibilities.

Participants pledged to work together on interfaith cooperation, youth education, and strengthening leadership capacity.
