Sofia, Bulgaria, September 24, 2018

There was a Family Festival with Peace Blessing on Monday, 24 September in the Peace Embassy of Sofia. This was the third time that we tried to organize the Peace Blessing in Bulgaria, but no couples came for the first two occasions. This time it was also a modest celebration, but we had one new couple and a few more guests.

The program was simple. First, we had a presentation about the Peace Embassy and our programs and organizations connected to it. After that there was a lecture about „The Family As the School of Love”, and finally a short movie introducing the Peace Blessing, followed by the ceremony itself.

The atmosphere was very nice, people felt good, the new guests were interested about True Father’s autobiography and promised to come back for further information and education.
