

Zambia celebrates True Parent's Birthday at Barlastone Training Center in Lusaka

Fabrice Djimadoum
February 10, 2019

Members from Zambia joined brothers and sisters worldwide to celebrate True Parent's Birthday on Sunday February 10th, 2019 at Barlastone Training Center in Lusaka.

Around 200 members attended and followed through the live broadcast with pledge service at midnight Zambian time then followed by the Celebration also via live broadcast transmission at 02:30 hours Zambian time.

Later in the day, we had a special Sunday Service centered on True Parent's Birthday. The service began with some holy songs and traditional songs as the way for members to express their gratitude to True Parents in their Birthday Anniversary.

The sermon on the importance of True Birthday highlighted by Pastor Eric Mutewa, Director of Blessed Family Department. Then followed by remarks by Rev. Rudolf Faerber on this day celebration. After the service brothers and sisters delicious lunch shared while the entertainment of different brothers and sisters, Sunday school children called little Angels of Zambia offered Beautiful songs dedicated to True Parents Birthday as well as a colorful performance by Tongil Moodo. Also dance competition with prizes won by best dancers as to express their gratitude to our beloved True Parents in their special day, the Birthday Anniversary.

The celebration came to the end with a beautiful performance of youth soccer match.

At the end, members were happy to joint together True Parents via live broadcast to celebrate the Christmas of our beloved True Parents.

