Dear True Mother,

I imagine it must be a lovely time in Cheonwon Complex right now, with the crisp scent of autumn in the air and a cool breeze. I pray that your day today is filled with happiness and that your health continues to improve. I am writing to report on the latest youth activities in Heavenly Asia Pacific.

True Mother, I would first like to share about the Heavenly Top Gun missionaries. While you have received direct reports from them, I am overjoyed to hear of their activities and creativity. It reaffirms that when given the opportunity, our young members can achieve remarkable things.

The Heavenly Top Gun missionaries in Antipolo are conducting witnessing under the name of the Family Federation Youth Center. Others are using True Parents' autobiographies in one-on-one witnessing to introduce people to True Parents and share their teachings.

I am deeply grateful to the Heavenly Top Gun missionaries sent by the Korean HQ. Much of the information and resources they share are new to me. At Antipolo Church, the blessed families are also engaged in street evangelism during the day and lecturing at weekend workshops. These small but tangible miracles are unfolding on the ground.

We once felt our past was richer than our present, but thanks to your love and attention, True Mother, our only-begotten daughter, we now see greater hope in the future. We are convinced that our future is even more promising than our past.

True Mother, we currently have 10 participants from the Heavenly Asia Pacific region applying to UPA. This is the highest number of applicants since 2013 when I attended UPA. I believe one of the main reasons for this increase is the Hyo Jung Rang workshops held in August in Korea and Thailand.

When young people naturally understand the heart of Heavenly Parent and True Parents, they choose the path of public life on their own. As a leader, I've realized that I cannot force change upon them. The best we can do is create a nurturing environment and provide education. I've come to understand deeply that this approach will be the seed for Heaven to work, our care and sincerity will be the water, and Heavenly Parent will greatly guide their conscience.

True Mother, I suppose I'm ambitious in my filial piety to you, and I believe my ability to dream big is one of my greatest strengths. Lately, I've been envisioning a Sunday service in the middle of a mall in the Philippines. I imagine our chants and sermon being heard by everyone as they go about their Sunday morning shopping. The thought of our family members and our young members openly singing and professing their faith fills me with excitement and joy. I believe this is possible here in Antipolo, Philippines, and it's something I'm determined to make happen.

I've shared my personal feelings, but above all, I will continue to focus on my mission to lead and nurture future generations, so that I can bring you even greater joy and honor.

True Parents, may you always be healthy and happy. May your day be filled with reasons to smile. Thank you, we love you.
